Words do not express thoughts very well; everything
immediately becomes a little different, a little distorted, a little foolish. And yet it also pleases me and seems right that what is of value and wisdom to one man seems nonsense to another.

The University of North Carolina
at Charlotte

On May 12, 1979, North Carolina Governor James B. Hunt spoke to a graduating class of over 1700 students. During the ceremony, UNCC awarded its first honorary degrees to Dr. Bonnie Cone and to Dr. D. W. Colvard.

Dr. Bonnie Cone received a Ph.D. of Humanities. Dr. Cone served as Director of the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina from its beginning until 1949. When the school became Charlotte College the same year, her title changed to that of president. She served in this capacity until 1965 when Charlotte College became part of the University of North Carolina system.

Former Chancellor D. W. Colvard was awarded a Ph.D. of Public Service. Dr. Colvard left Mississippi State University in 1965 to become Chancellor at UNCC. Dr. Colvard served the University until his retirement in January 1979 and saw the University through much of its initial growth.

Dr. Colvard was honored again later in the afternoon with the dedication of the D. W. Colvard Office/Classroom building. This structure added 130,000 square feet of much needed space to the University campus.
